

"When you say 'hill', I could show you hills in comparison with which you'd call that a valley."

(The Red Queen in 'Through the Looking Glass' by Lewis Carroll)

Despite the lack of impressive hills in Cambridgeshire, we hope you will join us again this term, when in theory we have the best weather for rambling. There is no subscription - everyone pays their own bus and train fares, just come along on a ramble bringing waterproofs, and sandwiches for all day rambles. It is advisable to wear boots or strong shoes which you do not mind getting muddy. For further details contact Clare Dickson (Newnham) or Vincent Taeger (Trinity Hall), or come along to coffee evenings chez Neal Alexander (S10 North Court, Emmanuel).
(*N.B. On 12th and 19th May coffee evenings will be in Jeremy Hutson's room, 11 Pembroke.)
