

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY RAMBLING CLUB

Michaelmas Term 2006

Welcome back to the Rambling Club. Once again, we invite you to leave the city for a few hours this term, and enjoy the surrounding countryside with us. The pace of our walks is generally easy, as our main aim is to relax and appreciate the local scenery and villages, and we have tried to provide a mixture of walks of different lengths, as this is exam term. We usually stop at a village pub en route, but you should bring a packed lunch and a drink anyway as occasionally a walk doesn't pass a pub, or we find that a pub is closed. Strong boots and waterproof clothing are also recommended. Your only expense is the bus or train fare (given below), plus our £1 annual membership fee. There is no need to sign up in advance to join any of this term's walks – just turn up at the time and place given. Our meeting points are:

Bus/Coach: At the corner of Drummer Street and Emmanuel Street.

Train: In the main hall of Cambridge Railway Station.

Saturday 21st October:
Anglesey Abbey to Wandlebury

"Ab's Archaeological Adventures"

Anglesey Abbey isn't quite as far from Cambridge as you might think – it's actually located in the small village of Lode just a few miles north-east of the city centre, and it's here that we will start this week's walk. From the remains of the Augustinian Priory we follow the Harcamlow Way alongside Quy Water, then through Little Wilbraham Fen towards Fulbourn, where we will stop for lunch. Then we head off into the high hills, to visit Copley Hill tumulus, before arriving at Wandlebury Country Park.

Meet: 09.45 at the bus station for the 10.00 bus to Lode.

Return: 15.09 bus from Wandlebury, arriving back in Cambridge at 15.35.

Cost: Approximately £4 for the bus fare.

Sunday 29th October:
Stretham to Histon

"From open fen to Cambridge suburb (or nearly)"

This week we'll be exploring the fens to the north of Cambridge. Starting from the village of Stretham, we'll pass the historic Stretham Old Engine (pumping station) before heading through Chear Fen to Twenty Pence Road. From here we'll follow Cottenham Lode to the village of Rampton and then turn south to Histon, from where we'll catch the bus home.

Meet: 11.15 at the bus station for the 11.30 bus to Stretham.

Return: 16.42 bus from Histon, arriving in Cambridge at 17.00.

Saturday 4th November:
Haverhill Circular

"It's back, and it's better than ever..."

12 miles

Contact: Lara

Haverhill is fast becoming one of our more popular rambling areas (watch out Audley End...), possibly because it offers some more undulating countryside than can be found elsewhere in East Anglia. From Haverhill, we head for Withersfield on our route towards the twin villages of Great and Little Thurslow, before stopping for lunch on the Suffolk boundary. From Great Thurlow, we join the Stour Valley path looping south-east towards Kedington, then back to Haverhill.

Meet: 09.20 at the bus station for the 09.35 bus to Haverhill

Return: 16.20 bus from Haverhill, arriving in Cambridge at 17.35

Cost: £4.20 for the bus fare

This walk takes us north of Cambridge, to visit the beautiful countryside around St. Neots. Starting from the village of Buckden, on the eastern shore of Grafham Water, we aim to make a complete circuit of the reservoir. From Buckden, we head across fields to Grafham village, then pick up the lakeshore path, which will take us most of the way around the lake. A quick diversion away from the water on the Three Shires Way will lead us past Hangman's Spinney, and then back to Buckden.

Meet: 08.25 at the bus station for the 08.40 bus to St. Neots.Return: 16.05 bus from Buckden, to connect with the 16.47 bus from St. Neots, arriving back in Cambridge at 17.25.Cost: Approximately £4 for the bus fare.Sunday 26th November:"A Stately-Home Crawl"Audley End to Wimpole Hall*23 miles*Contact: Jane

We've heard that National Trust Houses sell nice ice-creams – so we plan to visit two in one day! We start the day by visiting Audley End House, close to the town of Saffron Walden, then set off towards Stretchall, where we pick up the Icknield Way Path. This takes us to meet Chris Hall and Anthony Hill, before we pass Goffers Knoll on the way to Melbourn. For those people not wanting to walk the full distance, there is the option of returning home by train from nearby Meldreth station. The more intrepid adventurers and ice-cream-a-holics can continue northwards towards Wimpole Hall, and return by train from Shepreth

Meet: 08.30 at the railway station for the 08.51 train to Audley End.Return: 18.11 train from Shepreth, arriving in Cambridge at 18.27.Cost: The outward journey costs £4.50, or £2.95 with a railcard [Single from Cambridge to Audley End].

The return journey costs £3.30, or £2.20 with a railcard [Single from Shepreth to Cambridge].

Saturday 2nd December:“Holly's search for a goddess...”Oakham Circular*15 miles*Contact: Holly

Slightly longer and further afield than our usual excursions, this will hopefully be an interesting walk to finish off the term, taking in a different type of countryside from that surrounding Cambridge. From Oakham we will walk through much-contoured farmland, and alongside several streams, to reach Braunston-in-Rutland, where we will stop for lunch. This village is home to the Braunston "goddess", a small but curious sculpted stone which stands in the churchyard! We will then continue past the site of the mediaeval village of Brooke, including the ruins of a priory, before heading towards the edge of Rutland Water which we shall follow for a while and then head back into Oakham to catch the train home.

Meet: 07:45 at the railway station for the 08.02 train to Oakham.Return: 16.42 train from Oakham, arriving in Cambridge at 18.15.Cost: £16.70 for the train, or £11.70 with a railcard [Return to Oakham].The Rambling Club is brought to you by:
