

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY RAMBLING CLUB – Michaelmas Term 1996

This term we will continue to explore the villages around Cambridge. New ramblers are welcome at any time— there is no need to sign up beforehand and membership is just 20p for the year. Items to bring are: boots or strong shoes, waterproof clothing, money for the train or bus, liquid refreshment and a packed lunch. Sometimes we stop off in a village pub for drinks, but do bring a packed lunch anyway.

SUNDAY 27 OCT Ely–Prickwillow

10 Miles Contact: Mike

A walk through the unusual landscapes of the fens, much of it below sea level! The route takes in meadows, river banks and impressive man-made drainage features, ending up back in Ely (from which there are frequent return trains, for those who want to stay and look around). There are no pubs on this route, but drinks can be obtained at the drainage engine museum in Prickwillow.

Out: 10.32 train from Cambridge to Ely

Return: 16.49 train from Ely (arr. 17.05)
or choice of earlier/later trains

TUESDAY 30 OCT Emmanuel Formal Hall

Contact: Nicola

The price of this meal will be £5.50. Please bring a gown if you have one, and a bottle of wine if you would like one. Please make cheques payable to N Goode and deliver them to her at Emmanuel by 25 October stating whether you require a vegetarian option. For more information, such as the menu, contact Nicola.

SUNDAY 10 NOV Addenbrookes–Linton

10 Miles Contact: Elizabeth

From Addenbrookes we take the old Roman road out of Cambridge over the Gog Magog hills (the closest hills to Cambridge) to Linton. Those who live near Addenbrookes are welcome to join us there, but do be certain you follow the correct group from the bus.

Out: 10:05 bus 5 to Addenbrookes (arr. Addenbrookes Island 10:16)

Return: 16:11 bus 113 from Linton (arr. Addenbrookes Island 16:27, Drummer St. 16:35)

SUNDAY 24 NOV Fenstanton–Hemingford Grey

6 Miles Contact: Nicola

A circular walk taking us from Fenstanton on towards the beautiful village of Hemingford Grey where we will stop for lunch. From there we will head to the outskirts of St Ives, around the marina and follow the Great Ouse River back to our starting point. If we have time there may be a short extension to see the village of Houghton.

Out: 10:05 bus 151/153 from Cambridge to Fenstanton Return: 15:28 bus from Fenstanton (arr. 15:54)

TUESDAY 26 NOV New Hall Formal Hall

Contact: Elizabeth

This is a provisional date, more details nearer the time.

PUB MEETS

From next week we will have pub meets on Wednesday from 9:30 in the Anchor, on Silver Street next to Queen's.

MEETING PLACES: (Please arrive at least 10 mins before departure)

Train: In the main hall of Cambridge Railway Station.

Bus: At the corner where Drummer Street meets Emmanuel Street (near the public toilets!)

The Rambling Club is brought to you by: Mike Bingham (Selwyn, msb21@hermes), Elizabeth Collins (New Hall, 93ec@eng. Secretary), Nicola Goode (Emmanuel, ndg20@hermes Treasurer), George Hau (St. Catherines, gkth@mail.ast.cam.ac.uk), Nick Jones (Pembroke, njj20@hermes President).

If you would like to get involved in helping to run any aspect of the club please contact one of the above committee members. Any help however small is greatly appreciated whether you wish to lead a ramble or would be willing to simply deliver a few programmes at the beginning of each term.
